

Question 15: I would ride Capital Metro more often if... Please choose up to three.

Responses: 3,669

Fifty percent of respondents stated they would use transit more often if buses came more frequently (frequency cuts down on waiting times, and in some cases removes the need to consult schedules). Over thirty percent also felt they would ride more often if routes were closer to their homes or destinations, or if transit was a faster travel option.